

Continue Calling to Allāh and Pay No Attention to Rumormongers
Shaykh Ṣāliḥ al-Fawzān

The Noble Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Ṣāliḥ al-Fawzān was asked,

[Q]: May Allah bestow good upon you, the questioner asks: Some callers (du‘āt) in our land have become known by way of lectures, tapes and social media, and in their call there are errors, which are in opposition to the Sunnah and the ‘Aqīdah (correct belief). When we refute their falsehood coupled with proofs and evidences (people) say ‘This person is a caller to Islam and has done for Islam what you all have not done, so why do you criticize him?’

[A]: It is upon you to continue upon the path of calling to Allāh; and do not turn towards those who forsake (the truth and its callers), those who spread rumors and those who oppose you.

Do not turn towards them (at all). Continue [with your call]. You did not come to please the people, but you came to please Allāh (سُبْحَانَكَ وَتَعَالَى).

So if you are upon the truth, the correct path and sound methodology, then do not turn towards those who forsake (this) and those who spread rumors against you.

<http://www.af.org.sa/ar/node/5717>

Translated by Anwar Wright